Divine Sexuality

It All Started In Eden

Moran M. Judson

One of the most powerful human forces, 'responsible', at times, even for the demise of many 'high and mighty', is that 'lethal', passionate human force: Sex Drive. Be it men or women; practitioners of religion or atheists – all are affected positively or adversely by this most complex of all human drives. To some, it is 'the road to glory', to others, it is a nemesis.

For those who ascribe to the Biblical narrative, these questions beg for clear answers: How was sex meant to be? Why was human sexuality given to the human race? Who 'invented' it and originally illuminated the first couple of its complexity? What was sex like in the Garden of Eden? Who threw 'the monkey wrench' into the wheel that propels this divinely-ordained human sexuality and why? How did he do it? How can you entangle the 'mess' he created?

Human sexuality, with its tempestuous, pleasurable and passionate streams of fire, should have been the roaring engine that propels us to all the lofty heights of our personal mountains. Yet for many, it is the abyss that seems to gather the shattered and disillusioned fragments of our grieving sexual lives. Brace yourself for enlightening answers.

All religions believe in an afterlife existence - immediately after death. All believe in the immortality of the soul. Some believe in reincarnation. Jews, Christians, and Muslims believe that good people will go to Heaven, evil ones will go to Hell. Many devout Jews pray to their Saints in Heaven. Catholics pray to their Saints, especially to Mary -- "The Queen of Heaven." Protestants pray to their loved ones in Heaven.

Devout Muslims believe that their Prophet Muhammad ascended up to Heaven from Jerusalem. They regard this city as the third holiest place to Islam. As a consequence, much of the Jew/Arab conflict centers over the holiness of the City to both Jews and Muslims and the alleged "Temple Mount" true location. Fanatic Muslim terrorists believe the road to Paradise as Shahids, immediately after death, must be paved over the body parts of their indiscriminate victims.

According to Iran's president, Ahmadinejad, the purpose of the revolution and nuclear Iran is to prepare for the imminent return of the Mahdi, the twelfth Imam. Hence Israel must be destroyed, the West must be subjugated, and the rest of the world must submit to the coming Mahdi's "Reign of peace on earth."

If the belief in an afterlife -- immediately after death -- is true, then both the Bible and the Qur'an should fully confirm it in plain words. but what if they, instead, contradict it? What if God, Jesus, and Muhammad are not the source of this doctrine? What if the doctrine of an afterlife immediately after death is a hoax? What if man has no immortal soul?

In the pages of this book, the unbiased reader will discover the real story about the afterlife, the true destiny of humanity, the true location of the Temple Mount in Jerusalem and its link to the afterlife.
